

Greetings!

What a fabulous couple of months! Since August 1st I have ventured North quite a bit and experienced the best hospitality that Sporting Clays has to offer.

First, Hill 'N Dale in Ohio for a week of lessons and clinics with a short stop to see my friend Jim Eyster who "tuned up" my Perazzi MX2000S. Then it was over to Chicago to Northbrook Sports Club where Brett Seibert outdid himself in hosting lessons and clinics for me but especially with his support of the NSCA Level I Instructor Course we held there. We graduated another great class of Level I Instructors and once again had the opportunity to work with students from Master Class to Collegiate Shooters.

I was home for a week then on to San Antonio where I split my teaching time between the National Shooting Complex and 74 Ranch. We all expect everything to be BIG in Texas but the mound of food on my dinner plate each night was rivaled only by the dizzying altitude of the tower targets at 74 Ranch. Thanks to Steve Schultz for inviting me to teach at the annual Targetline Immersion Clinic. What a blast! Each year, this clinic fills up in about 30 minutes after the dates are announced so, if you are interested in attending, please send me an e-mail and I'll put you on the invitation list.

Take a look at the calendar on the home page for my locations in September and October.

This months shooting tip? "Deceptive Targets". Enjoy!

This Month's Shooting Tip:

"Deceptive Targets"

Whether a midi, midi or rabbit, some targets can be downright deceptive. Learn to identify and plan your way through stations with targets that are doing something different than what your brain is telling you. READ THE ARTICLE
