

Greetings!

"You're behind it!" Ah! What a familiar echo on the sporting clays course. Whether or not the information is solicited or unwelcomed, your squad mates are absolutely confident that the bellowing of "Behind!" will put you on target for the next pair. You pay closer attention to the barrel this time and intentionally give the target more lead than you gave it before...and that's when things start to unravel. This month's shooting tip is about the "why" not the "where".

NEWS ITEMS !

* In August, September and October, Don will be teaching in Florida, Georgia and Canada as well as conducting an NSCA Level I Instructor Course in Northbrook, IL.

* Don will be giving private lessons and clinics at the prestigious Fox Harbr Golf Resort & Spa (Nova Scotia), Southwind (Quitman, GA) and Foxhall Resort and Sporting Club (Douglasville, GA)

* PLEASE SUPPORT JOHN HARRIS, NSCA Instructor, friend, father and husband and his family as he battles Esophageal Cancer. He has been out of work since April, when the battle began, and his family needs our support. Learn more HERE !

This Month's Shooting Tip:

"Where was I on that target?"

Following a miss, this is perhaps the most frequently asked question on the sporting clays course. Where you missed a target, however, is an irrelevant and often destructive piece of information. It's the why that's important. READ MORE...
